

Exhibit 1

Thank you to all our prospective jurors!

You remain in the pool of prospective jurors in a particular case described below. You must answer the following juror questionnaire. This questionnaire will assist the judge and lawyers in selecting a jury. Answer all the questions to the best of your ability. There are no right or wrong answers. To answer correctly you must answer honestly.

We need your help so that we can select a fair and impartial jury in this case. Do not assume anything from these questions. The fact they are being asked does not necessarily have anything to do with the evidence that you will hear.

The judge and lawyers know that every person has beliefs and prejudices concerning many things. You should answer with your true feelings and opinion, whatever they may be. Do not assume that any of your answers will qualify you or disqualify you from serving on this jury.

Please fully answer each question to the best of your ability. Write or print clearly. You must not ask anyone for help. Do the best you can. If you cannot answer a question because you do not understand it or do not know, please indicate that.

Because your answers are part of the jury selection process and become part of the records of this court, your answers must be truthful under penalty of perjury.

The answers to these questions will be disclosed to the Court and the attorneys and will be used by the Court and the attorneys for the selection of the jury in this case. The confidentiality of your answers to these questions will be maintained unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

From this point forward, you are directed not to read, listen to, or watch anything related to this case until you have been excused as a potential juror, or if you are selected as a juror, until the trial is over. This includes all media sources such as television, radio, newspaper, on-line sites, blogs, social media, Google searches, etc. You are not to discuss this case with anyone, including your family, friends, co-workers, or other potential jurors. You are directed not to write or post anything about this case or your jury service on social media or in any other format. Do not research this case or the people involved – including any of the facts presented in this questionnaire, the victims, the accused, the lawyers, and the judge – through any resource including the internet, media publications or other source of information.

Again, do not discuss this questionnaire or your answers with friends, family, co-workers, court personnel, or anyone else or attempt to do any research on this case or anything related to the case.

Jury service is one of the most important duties a citizen can be called upon to perform. Thank you for fulfilling your civic duty by responding completely and honestly during jury selection. The integrity of the process depends on your truthfulness. Your participation and cooperation in this process are greatly appreciated.

Honorable Jacqueline Scott Corley
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Case Summary

This is a criminal case involving charges brought by the United States against David DePape (the “Defendant”). Mr. DePape is charged with attempting to kidnap Nancy Pelosi and assaulting her husband, Paul Pelosi, at their residence in San Francisco in late October 2022.

The trial will involve two counts.

In Count 1, the United States alleges that David DePape attempted to kidnap Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi.

In Count 2, the United States alleges that David DePape assaulted Paul Pelosi with a dangerous weapon.

These are only allegations. The Defendant has denied the charges and pled not guilty. The United States must prove each charge against the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt. The Defendant is presumed innocent of the charges.

A rectangular text box with a thin black border and a small triangle in the bottom right corner, indicating it is a text input field.

* 14. Have you, or a close friend or family member, ever had a positive or negative experience with a law enforcement officer or agency, federal agency, or the federal government which would influence your ability to judge the facts of a criminal case or the person accused?

☐ No

☐ Yes. If Yes, please explain:

A rectangular text box with a thin black border and a small triangle in the bottom right corner, indicating it is a text input field.

* 15. The defendant, witnesses, or lawyers in this case may be of a different race, color, immigration status, national origin, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender or gender identity, or economic circumstances from you. You will be instructed that you should not be influenced by any of these factors. Does this instruction seem fair to you and could you follow it as a juror in this case?

☐ Yes

☐ No. If No, please explain:

A rectangular text box with a thin black border and a small triangle in the bottom right corner, indicating it is a text input field.

* 16. Is there anything about your personal beliefs, whether religious, moral, ethical, or philosophical, that would make it difficult or inappropriate for you to serve as a juror in a criminal case and make a determination about a person's guilt?

☐ No

☐ Yes. If Yes, please explain:

A rectangular text box with a thin black border and a small triangle in the bottom right corner, indicating it is a text input field.

* 17. The law provides that, in a criminal case, the Government has the burden of proof, and that a defendant need not prove or disprove anything. Do you think this rule is fair and could you follow it as a juror in this case?

☐ Yes

☐ No. If No, please explain:

* 18. Which of the following statements best describes your view regarding criminal law in the United States as it relates to people accused of crimes?

☐ The law provides an appropriate level of protection for people accused of crimes.

☐ The law does not provide enough protection for people accused of crimes.

☐ The law provides too much protection for people accused of crimes.

☐ I do not know / I have no opinion.

If you believe the law provides too much or not enough protection, please explain:

* 19. The court will instruct you that the burden of proof remains with the prosecution. That burden of proof is proof beyond a reasonable doubt. The Court will instruct you on this issue, but generally, this standard requires proof that leaves you “firmly convinced” the defendant is guilty, but does not require the Government to prove guilt beyond all possible doubt. It is your duty to find the defendant guilty if the Government meets this standard, and to find the defendant not guilty if the Government does not meet this standard. Do you think this rule is fair and could you follow it as a juror in this case?

☐ Yes

☐ No. If No, please explain:

* 20. The law provides that a defendant has a right not to testify in her/his own defense, and that you may not draw any inferences or presumption of guilt from a defendant's decision not to testify. Do you think this rule is fair and could you follow it as a juror in this case?

☐ Yes

☐ No. If No, please explain:

* 21. The court will instruct you on the laws and your duties as jurors. Will you be able to follow these instructions even if you disagree with them?

☐ Yes

☐ No. If No, please explain:

Witnesses

Please check the box of the name of any of the listed people that you personally know:

* 1. During a trial you may hear the testimony of police or other law enforcement officers including federal agents. The jury will be instructed that testimony of a witness should be given no more or less weight solely because the witness is a law enforcement officer. Despite that instruction would you tend to give the testimony of a law enforcement officer any more or less weight – no matter how slight - than you would to a witness who is not a law enforcement officer, or would you judge their testimony in the same way that you would judge testimony from non-law enforcement witnesses? For each choice, please explain your answer below.

- ☐ More Weight (please explain below)
- ☐ Less Weight (please explain below)
- ☐ Same Weight (please explain below)

Please explain:

* 2. Would you be more or less inclined to believe Congresswoman Pelosi or her husband Paul Pelosi than any other witness for any reason, including her position as a Congresswoman and former Speaker of the House of Representatives? Please explain your response.

- ☐ I would be more inclined to believe them (please explain).
- ☐ I would be less inclined to believe them (please explain).
- ☐ I would not be either more or less inclined to believe them.

Please explain.
